

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

ALEXANDRIA DIVISION

ANTHONY McCARTY	CIVIL ACTION NO. 08-0240
VERSUS	U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE DEE D. DRELL
WINN CORECTIONAL CTR., ET AL	U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE JAMES D. KIRK

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Before the court is a motion by plaintiff for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction [Doc. # 14]. Plaintiff asks the court to order the prison to transfer him to another facility and to stop retaliating against him by, inter alia, tampering with his mail.

Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

- (b) A temporary restraining order may be granted without written or oral notice to the adverse party or that party's attorney only if (1) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or that party's attorney can be heard in opposition, and (2) the applicant's attorney certifies to the court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting the claim that notice should not be required.

In order for plaintiff to obtain a preliminary injunction, he must show: (1) a substantial likelihood that his cause will succeed on the merits, (2) a substantial threat of irreparable injury if the injunction is not granted, (3) that the threatened injury outweighs the threatened harm the injunction may do to the opposing party, and (4) that the court granting the injunction will not disserve the public interest. Piedmont Heights Civic Club, Inc. v. Moreland, 637 F.2d 430 (5th Cir. 1981).

In the instant case, plaintiff has failed to meet the requirements set forth above. The facts alleged do not appear by affidavit and the motion is not verified. Further, plaintiff has not alleged any specific facts to show that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to him before the adverse party can be heard in opposition and there is no substantial threat of irreparable injury prior to the time a hearing can be held in this matter. Additionally, plaintiff has not shown that there is a substantial likelihood that his cause will succeed on the merits. Finally, this court has no authority to order his transfer to another facility.

Plaintiff's motions for temporary restraining order should be denied.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, IT IS RECOMMENDED that plaintiff's requests for temporary restraining order [Doc. #14] be DENIED.
